
COLUMBUS DAY CELEBRATIONS END

Columbus Day celebrations in Syracuse drew to a close today after a dinner at the Hotel Syracuse under the auspices of the Columbus Monument Association. A campaign to raise a fund of $22,000 to erect a monument to the intrepid voyager is now under way. Anthony J. Valentine was toastmaster and the speakers J. G. Ciccarelli, Edward Corsi and Anthony Dettor. Honorary guests were Mayor Charles G. Hanna, Dr. Pietro J. Braida, Italian consul, Judge Leo J. Yehle and Edward Corsi.
